 - (ii) the increased housing outcome under the test is to be met by a development described in clause 4(1) of Schedule 3 (large apartment developments); and
 - (iii) the estate or interest in land relates to 1 or more new residential dwellings in that development; and
 - (iv) the transaction is entered into before the construction of the dwelling is complete.
- (4) See also clause 4(5) of Schedule 2 (which relates to the commitment to reside in New Zealand test and relationship property) for a circumstance in which an individual with control of the relevant overseas person can be disregarded in determining whether the investor test is met.

16A Benefit to New Zealand test

Outline

- (1AA) This subsection shows the ways in which the benefit to New Zealand test can be met, but it is a guide only to the general scheme and effect of this section.

Pathway	Which subsections apply	Which counterfactual applies
General test	Subsections (1), (1A)	Subsection (1A)(a)
Modified benefit test if relevant land is or includes farm land described in subsection (1C)	Subsections (1), (1A), (1C), (1D), (1E), (2)	Subsection (1A)(a)
Special benefit test relating to forestry activities	Subsections (4) to (9)	N/a

General test

- (1) The benefit to New Zealand test is met if both of the following are met:
- (a) the overseas investment will, or is likely to, benefit New Zealand (or any part of it or group of New Zealanders) to the extent required by this section, as determined by the relevant Ministers under section 17; and
 - (b) if the relevant land is or includes residential land, the relevant Ministers are satisfied that the conditions that the relevant Ministers will impose on the consent in accordance with section 16B will be, or are likely to be, met.
- (1A) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a), the relevant Ministers—
- (a) must assess the benefit to New Zealand (or any part of it or group of New Zealanders) by comparing the likely result of the overseas investment against the existing state of affairs as at the time the overseas investment transaction is entered into or the time the application is made, whichever occurs first (counterfactual); and

- (b) must take a proportionate approach to whether the benefit test is met, by taking into account whether that benefit is proportionate to the following:
 - (i) the sensitivity of the land (for example, the importance to New Zealand of the purpose for which the land is used, the size and value of the land, any sensitive features associated with the land, and the level of interest that the public have in the land) or the fishing quota; and
 - (ii) the nature of the overseas investment transaction (for example, the estate or interest being acquired, whether the estate or interest is temporary or permanent, and the degree of overseas ownership or control of the land or of the estate or interest in land).
- (1B) However, subsection (1A) does not apply if subsection (4) applies.

Modified benefit test if relevant land is or includes farm land
- (1C) If the relevant land is or includes farm land that in area exceeds 5 hectares, the relevant Ministers must—
 - (a) give the following factors high relative importance:
 - (i) the economic benefits factor in section 17(1)(a) and, in particular, the creation or retention of jobs, introduction of technology or business skills, increased export receipts, and increased processing of primary products; and
 - (ii) the oversight or participation factor in section 17(1)(f); and
 - (b) ensure that the applicant has demonstrated, in relation to 1 or more of those factors, that the benefits of the investment are of a size or nature that represent a substantial benefit to New Zealand.
- (1D) However, the relevant Ministers may determine not to apply subsection (1C) if they are satisfied that—
 - (a) the transaction is minor or technical; or
 - (b) the transaction does not materially change the level of ownership or control that the relevant overseas person has over the asset; or
 - (c) the farm land has no or limited productive capacity as farm land and will, or is likely to, be used promptly, as a result of the overseas investment, for industrial or commercial development (for example, a supermarket) or for the construction of 1 or more buildings that, taken together, will consist of 20 or more new residential dwellings.
- (1E) Subsection (1C) does not preclude the relevant Ministers also giving other factors high relative importance.
- (2) Subsection (1C) does not apply if the relevant Ministers are satisfied—

- (a) that, as a result of the overseas investment, the farm land will, or is likely to, be used exclusively, or nearly exclusively, for forestry activities; and
 - (b) that, whenever a crop of trees is harvested on the farm land, a new crop will be, or is likely to be, established on the farm land to replace the crop that is harvested (subject to subsection (7)); and
 - (c) that the non-occupation outcome will, or is likely to, occur in relation to the farm land (where that outcome in clause 17(3) to (5) of Schedule 2 applies with necessary modifications as if the reference to residential land were a reference to the farm land).
- (3) [Repealed]
Special test relating to forestry activities
- (4) Regulations may provide that the benefit to New Zealand test is also met if the relevant Ministers are satisfied—
 - (a) that the relevant land is already used when the transaction is entered into, and will continue to be used, exclusively, or nearly exclusively, for forestry activities; and
 - (b) that—
 - (i) the relevant land is not residential land only; and
 - (ii) if the relevant land includes any residential land, the residential land adjoins other land that is included in the relevant land but is not residential land; and
 - (c) that the non-occupation outcome will, or is likely to, occur in relation to the relevant land (where that outcome in clause 17(3) to (5) of Schedule 2 applies with necessary modifications as if the reference to residential land were a reference to the relevant land); and
 - (d) that any requirements set out in regulations in accordance with subsection (5) will be, or are likely to be, met (subject to subsection (8)); and
 - (e) that, whenever a crop of trees is harvested on the relevant land, a new crop will be, or is likely to be, established on the relevant land to replace the crop that is harvested (subject to subsection (7)); and
 - (f) [Repealed]
 - (g) that any other requirements set out in regulations are met.
- (4A) To avoid doubt, the reference in subsection (2)(a) to the use of the farm land and the reference in subsection (4)(a) to the use of the relevant land mean the use that arises under the estate or interest referred to in section 12(1)(a).
- (5) Regulations may, for the purposes of subsection (4)(d), set out requirements that must be met after the overseas investment is given effect to.
- (6) Requirements set out in regulations for the purposes of subsection (4)(d) may (without limitation) be about 1 or more of the following:

- (a) activities that must, or must not, be carried out on the relevant land:
- (b) the maintenance or protection of things that exist when or before the overseas investment transaction is entered into (including (without limitation) the maintenance of existing arrangements relating to historic heritage, biodiversity, environmental matters, public access, or the supply of logs):
- (c) outcomes that must result from the overseas investment.

Powers not to apply, or to modify, certain requirements

- (7) The relevant Ministers may decide—
 - (a) not to apply the requirement set out in subsection (2)(b) or (4)(e) if satisfied that the relevant overseas person (together with the relevant overseas person's associates) will not have sufficient ownership or control (direct or indirect) of rights in respect of the relevant land to ensure that the requirement will be met:
 - (b) to modify the requirement set out in subsection (2)(b) or (4)(e) by not applying the requirement for a part of the relevant land if satisfied that the relevant overseas person (together with the relevant overseas person's associates) will not have sufficient ownership or control (direct or indirect) of rights in respect of that part of the relevant land to ensure that the requirement will be met for that part of the relevant land.
- (8) The relevant Ministers may decide not to apply, or may modify, any requirement set out in regulations for the purposes of subsection (4)(d) if satisfied that the relevant overseas person (together with the relevant overseas person's associates) will not have sufficient ownership or control (direct or indirect) of rights in respect of the relevant land to ensure that the requirement will be met.

Definitions

- (9) In this section,—
 - adjoins includes separated only by a public road (including a motorway or a State highway, and whether or not the road is formed)
 - forestry activities means any of the following activities in respect of any trees (whether exotic or native) that are to be harvested to provide wood:
 - (a) maintaining a crop of trees:
 - (b) harvesting a crop of trees:
 - (c) maintaining the land during the period between harvesting a crop of trees and establishing a new crop of trees:
 - (d) establishing a crop of trees.

16B Conditions for consents relating to sensitive land that is residential land: benefit to New Zealand test

- (1) This section applies if an application for consent for an overseas investment in sensitive land is being considered under the benefit to New Zealand test and the relevant land is or includes residential land.
- (2) However, this section does not apply (and see instead section 16C)—
 - (a) to the extent that the relevant land is farm land and the relevant Ministers are satisfied in accordance with section 16A(2); or
 - (b) where the application is being considered in accordance with section 16A(4).
- (3) If consent is granted, to the extent that the consent relates to the residential land,—
 - (a) the relevant Ministers must determine a residential land outcome listed in the table in clause 19 of Schedule 2 as applying to the residential land; and
 - (b) the consent must be made subject to the set of conditions for the residential land outcome, subject to any exemptions applying (in each case, as described in the table).
- (4) Consent may be granted on the basis of different residential land outcomes applying for different parts of the residential land (with different sets of conditions imposed for different parts).

Example

A is an overseas person who wants to buy 100% of the shares in what is currently a 100% New Zealand-owned and -controlled company.

The company owns the following sensitive land (and has no other interests in sensitive land):

- 40 hectares of non-urban land (that is not residential land);
- residential land where 2 houses are being constructed.

No part of the land is, or will be, used for forestry activities.

Criteria for consent

Because the relevant land is a mix of sensitive (but not residential) land and residential land, section 16(1)(e) applies and (in addition to the other criteria in section 16(1) that apply) the benefit to New Zealand test must be met in relation to all of the relevant land.

Residential land outcomes

Because the relevant land includes residential land, section 16A(1)(b) applies.

A wants to complete and sell one of the houses and live in the other house. A's application for consent proposes the following residential land outcomes (from the table in clause 19 of Schedule 2) for the residential land:

- occupation as a main home or residence (on the basis that the commitment to reside in New Zealand test will be met in respect of part of the residential land);
- increased residential dwellings (for the remaining part of the residential land).

Required conditions

If consent is granted, each part of the residential land will be covered by a set of conditions (see clause 19 of Schedule 2) for the residential land outcomes that the relevant Ministers determine apply.

(See also sections 25A and 25B, in relation to the imposition of conditions generally.)

Section 16B: inserted, on 22 October 2018, by section 13 of the Overseas Investment Amendment Act 2018 (2018 No 25).

Section 16B(2): replaced, on 16 August 2022, by section 5(1) of the Overseas Investment (Forestry) Amendment Act 2022 (2022 No 42).

Section 16B example: amended, on 16 August 2022, by section 5(2) of the Overseas Investment (Forestry) Amendment Act 2022 (2022 No 42).

16C Conditions for consents relating to sensitive land that will be used for forestry activities

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if an application for consent for an overseas investment in sensitive land is being considered under the benefit to New Zealand test, to the extent that the relevant land is farm land and the relevant Ministers are satisfied in accordance with section 16A(2).
- (2) If granted, the consent must be made subject to conditions for the purpose of ensuring that the requirements set out in section 16A(2) will be met, subject to section 16A(7).
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if an application for consent for an overseas investment in sensitive land is being considered under the benefit to New Zealand test in accordance with section 16A(4).
- (4) If granted, the consent must be made subject to conditions for the purpose of ensuring that the following requirements will be met:
 - (a) the requirements set out in section 16A(4)(a) and (c):
 - (b) the requirements set out in regulations made for the purposes of section 16A(4)(d), subject to section 16A(8):
 - (c) the requirement set out in section 16A(4)(e), subject to section 16A(7).
- (5) A condition imposed in relation to the requirement set out in section 16A(2)(b) or (4)(e) may require the replacement of a crop of trees that is harvested to be on a like-for-like basis or on any similar basis.

Section 16C: inserted, on 22 October 2018, by section 13 of the Overseas Investment Amendment Act 2018 (2018 No 25).

Section 16C(1): replaced, on 16 August 2022, by section 6(1) of the Overseas Investment (Forestry) Amendment Act 2022 (2022 No 42).

Section 16C(2): replaced, on 16 August 2022, by section 6(1) of the Overseas Investment (Forestry) Amendment Act 2022 (2022 No 42).

Section 16C(5): amended, on 16 August 2022, by section 6(2) of the Overseas Investment (Forestry) Amendment Act 2022 (2022 No 42).

17 Factors for assessing benefit of overseas investments in sensitive land

What are the factors

- (1) The factors for assessing the benefit of overseas investments in sensitive land are whether the overseas investment will, or is likely to,—
 - (a) result in economic benefits for New Zealand (for example, the creation or retention of jobs, the introduction of technology or business skills, increases in productivity or export receipts, or a reduced risk of illiquid assets):
 - (b) result in benefits to the natural environment (for example, protection of indigenous flora and fauna or erosion control):
 - (c) result in continued or enhanced access by the public, or any section of the public, within or over the sensitive land or the features giving rise to the sensitivity (for example, access for recreational purposes or for the purposes of undertaking stewardship of, or exercising kaitiakitanga in relation to, historic heritage or the natural environment):
 - (d) result in continued or enhanced protection of historic heritage in or on the relevant land (for example, agreement to execute a heritage covenant (or comply with existing covenants), agreement to support entry to wāhi tūpuna, wāhi tapu, or wāhi tapu areas on the New Zealand Heritage List/Rārangi Kōrero, taking other actions under the Heritage New Zealand Pouhere Taonga Act 2014 to recognise or protect heritage values, or agreement to land being set apart as a Māori reservation):
 - (e) give effect to or advance a significant Government policy:
 - (f) involve oversight of, or participation in, the overseas investment or any relevant overseas person by persons who are not overseas persons:
 - (g) result in other consequential benefits to New Zealand.

How factors must be considered

- (2) For the purposes of section 16A(1)(a) and (b), the relevant Ministers—
 - (a) must consider all the factors in subsection (1) to determine which factor or factors are relevant to the overseas investment; and
 - (b) must determine whether the criteria in section 16A(1)(a) and (b) are met after having regard to those relevant factors and, in doing so,—
 - (i) must deduct from any benefit arising under a factor any directly comparable aspect of the counterfactual, and any negative impact of the overseas investment that is directly comparable, but must stop deducting at zero unless subsection (3) applies:

- (ii) must not deduct from any benefit arising under a factor any non-directly comparable aspect of the counterfactual or any negative impact of the overseas investment that is not directly comparable unless subsection (3) applies:

Examples

Directly comparable

If a company is generating $10 million in export receipts at the time that the overseas investment transaction is entered into and the overseas investment will result in a total of $15 million in export receipts, the net benefit in respect of export receipts under the economic factor is $5 million.

Non-directly comparable

If the overseas investment will result in an increase in jobs, but a decrease in export receipts, as compared with the counterfactual, the decrease in export receipts cannot be deducted from the benefit associated with the increase in jobs.

If an overseas investment will result in the introduction of technology but a decrease in export receipts, the decrease in export receipts must not be deducted from any benefits arising from the introduction of technology.

- (iii) must determine the relative importance to be given to each relevant factor or particular benefit arising under a factor, subject to section 16A(1C).
- (3) If the overseas investment involves the extraction of water for bottling, or other extraction of water in bulk for human consumption,—
- (a) an additional factor is whether the overseas investment will, or is likely to, result in a negative impact on water quality or sustainability; and
 - (b) the relevant Ministers must determine the relative importance to be given to this factor and deduct that from any overall benefit to New Zealand that has been determined under section 16A(1)(a).

Section 17(1)(d): amended, on 23 December 2023, by section 6 of the Resource Management (Natural and Built Environment and Spatial Planning Repeal and Interim Fast-track Consenting) Act 2023 (2023 No 68).

Section 17(2)(b): amended, on 16 August 2022, by section 7 of the Overseas Investment (Forestry) Amendment Act 2022 (2022 No 42).

18 Criteria for consent for overseas investments in significant business assets

The criteria for an overseas investment in significant business assets are both of the following:

- (a) the investor test is met:
- (b) if the overseas investment in significant business assets is a transaction of national interest, the Minister has not declined consent to the transaction (see section 20C).

Section 18: replaced, on 22 March 2021, by section 14(2) of the Overseas Investment (Urgent Measures) Amendment Act 2020 (2020 No 21).

18A Investor test

Purpose

- (1) The purpose of the investor test is to determine whether investors are unsuitable to own or control any sensitive New Zealand assets, by assessing whether they are likely to pose risks to New Zealand, based on factors relating to their character and capability.

When investor test is met

- (2) The investor test is met in respect of an overseas investment if the relevant Ministers are satisfied that all of the following persons (investors), excluding persons who are not overseas persons, meet the investor test:
 - (a) the relevant overseas person; and
 - (b) all the individuals with control of the relevant overseas person, to the extent that the relevant overseas person is not an individual.
- (3) The investor test is met in respect of an investor (A) if the relevant Ministers are satisfied that—
 - (a) none of the investor test factors are established; or
 - (b) any investor test factor or factors that are established do not make A unsuitable to own or control any sensitive New Zealand assets.

Investor test factors

- (4) The investor test factors are—

 - (ii) whether A has, at any time in the preceding 10 years, been convicted of an offence for which A has been sentenced to imprisonment for a term of 12 months or more, or for an indeterminate period capable of running for 12 months or more:

- (iii) if A is not an individual, whether A has, at any time in the preceding 10 years, been convicted of an offence for which A has been sentenced to pay a fine:
 - (iv) whether A has been ordered, in the preceding 10 years, by a court, any other court in New Zealand, or any equivalent body overseas to pay a civil pecuniary penalty in respect of a contravention of any enactment:
 - (v) whether, at any time in the preceding 10 years, a court has imposed a penalty on A for a contravention of this Act or the regulations:
 - (vi) whether any other proceedings have been begun against A, and have not been completed, for any offence, or contravention of an enactment, that carries a penalty corresponding to those listed in subparagraphs (i) to (v):
 - (vii) whether A has entered, in the preceding 10 years, into an enforceable undertaking or an equivalent agreement with any regulator in respect of any contravention or alleged contravention of any enactment:

20 Exemptions from farm land offer criterion

Powers to exempt

- (1) Section 16(1)(f) does not apply to an overseas investment if—
- (a) the relevant Ministers consider that the overseas investment need not meet this criterion by reason of the circumstances relating to the particular overseas investment or section 12 interest or the nature of the land to which the section 12 interest relates (for example, its productive capacity); or
 - (b) the overseas person making the overseas investment belongs to a class of overseas persons, or the overseas investment transaction belongs to a class of transactions, that is exempted from this criterion by the relevant Ministers.
- (2) The relevant Ministers may also exempt a person or transaction from—
- (a) the requirement that offers for acquisition must be on the open market:
 - (b) any other requirement in regulations about how farm land or section 12 interests must be advertised.

Restrictions on powers to exempt

- (3) The relevant Ministers may grant an exemption under this section only if those Ministers consider that—
- (a) there are circumstances that mean that it is necessary, appropriate, or desirable to provide an exemption; and
 - (b) the extent of the exemption is not broader than is reasonably necessary to address those circumstances.
- (4) In so considering, the relevant Ministers—
- (a) must have regard to the purpose of this Act; and
 - (b) may have regard to any other factors that seem to those Ministers to be relevant to the circumstances.

Applications

- (5) An application for an exemption under this section may be made at any time by written notice to the regulator accompanied by the fee required by regulations.

Conditions

- (6) An exemption under this section may be made subject to any conditions.

Class exemptions

- (7) An exemption made under subsection (1)(b) is secondary legislation (see Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019 for publication requirements).
- (8) The reasons of the relevant Ministers for granting the exemption must be published with the exemption.

Other exemptions

- (9) An exemption made under subsection (1)(a) or (2) must be published on an Internet site maintained by, or on behalf of, the regulator, together with the reasons of the relevant Ministers for granting the exemption.
- (10) However, publication under subsection (9) may be deferred or dispensed with (in whole or in part) if the relevant Ministers are satisfied on reasonable grounds that good reason for withholding the exemption or the reasons (as the case may be) would exist under the Official Information Act 1982, in which case the relevant Ministers must publish the reason for deferring or dispensing with publication and the grounds in support of that reason.

Maximum duration

- (11) An exemption under this section may continue in force for not more than 5 years (and at the close of the date that is 5 years after the exemption first comes into force, the exemption must be treated as having been revoked unless it sooner is revoked or expires).

Section 20: replaced, on 24 November 2021, by section 11 of the Overseas Investment Amendment Act 2021 (2021 No 17).

Transactions of national interest

Heading: inserted, on 16 June 2020, by section 17 of the Overseas Investment (Urgent Measures) Amendment Act 2020 (2020 No 21).

20A Transactions that are transactions of national interest

Transactions involving non-NZ government investors or SIB

- (1) The following kinds of overseas investment transactions are transactions of national interest:

Investment by non-NZ government investors

- (a) a transaction of a kind described in section 12(1)(a) or 13(1)(c) of this Act, or in section 57D(a) of the Fisheries Act 1996, where, as a result of the acquisition, the relevant estate or interest in land, property, or fishing quota is acquired by a non-NZ government investor:
- (b) a transaction of a kind described in section 12(1)(b)(i) or (ii) or 13(1)(a) of this Act, or in section 57D(b) of the Fisheries Act 1996, where, as a result of the acquisition, a non-NZ government investor has more than 25% ownership or control interest in A:

Investment in strategically important businesses

- (c) a transaction of a kind described in section 12(1)(a) where the estate or interest in land is used in carrying on a SIB:
 - (d) a transaction of a kind described in section 12(1)(b)(i) or (ii) or 13(1)(a) where A is carrying on a SIB:
 - (e) a transaction of a kind described in section 13(1)(c) where the acquisition is of or includes property (including goodwill and other intangible assets) in New Zealand used in carrying on a SIB.
- (1A) However, for the purpose of subsection (1)(a) and (b), references to a “relevant government investor or investors” in the definition of relevant government enterprise in section 6(1) include only relevant government investors from the same country.

Example

An acquisition by a company of which a New South Wales Government pension fund owns 15% and a Victorian Government pension fund owns 15% is a transaction of national interest (because Australia is the single country). But an acquisition by a company of which a New South Wales Government pension fund owns 15% and a Belgian Government pension fund owns 15% is not a transaction of national interest.

- (2) The Minister must notify an applicant if the Minister considers that an application for consent involves a transaction of the kind set out in subsection (1), unless the applicant has already identified this in their application.
- (3) However, failure to notify an applicant does not affect a transaction's status as a transaction of national interest and does not invalidate any action taken by the Minister in reliance on a transaction's status as a transaction of national interest.
- (4) This section is subject to any regulations made under section 127(1).

Section 20A: inserted, on 16 June 2020, by section 17 of the Overseas Investment (Urgent Measures) Amendment Act 2020 (2020 No 21).

Section 20A(1A): inserted, on 5 July 2021, by section 12(3) of the Overseas Investment Amendment Act 2021 (2021 No 17).

20AA Exemptions from definition

- (1) The purpose of this section is to allow for exemptions for transactions that are transactions of national interest only because the relevant estate or interest in land, property, or fishing quota is acquired by a relevant government enterprise, provided there are appropriate limitations on the extent to which government control or influence could affect the pursuit of non-commercial objectives.
- (2) The Minister may exempt any relevant government enterprise from the definition of non-NZ government investor in section 6(1) for the purpose of section 20A(1)(a) or (b) if the Minister considers—
 - (a) that the enterprise meets the criteria relating to control or influence that are prescribed in the regulations; and
 - (b) that there are circumstances that mean that it is necessary, appropriate, or desirable to provide an exemption; and
 - (c) that the extent of the exemption is not broader than is reasonably necessary.
- (3) An application for an exemption may be made at any time by written notice to the regulator accompanied by the fee required by regulations.
- (4) The Minister must publish each exemption granted under this section on an Internet site maintained by, or on behalf of, the regulator, together with the reasons of the Minister for granting the exemption.
- (5) However, publication may be deferred or dispensed with (in whole or in part) if the Minister is satisfied on reasonable grounds that good reason for withholding the exemption or the reasons (as the case may be) would exist under the Official Information Act 1982.

- (6) An exemption may be made subject to any conditions.
- (7) An exemption under this section may continue in force for not more than 5 years (and at the close of the date that is 5 years after the exemption first comes into force, the exemption must be treated as having been revoked unless it sooner is revoked or expires).

Section 20AA: inserted, on 5 July 2021, by section 13 of the Overseas Investment Amendment Act 2021 (2021 No 17).

20B Other transactions may be transactions of national interest if notice given

- (1) If the Minister considers that any other overseas investment transaction for which an application for consent has been made could be contrary to New Zealand's national interest, the Minister may notify the applicant in writing that the transaction is a transaction of national interest.
- (2) The person making a decision under section 24 in relation to a particular application cannot exercise the Minister's power under subsection (1) in relation to that application.

Section 20B: inserted, on 16 June 2020, by section 17 of the Overseas Investment (Urgent Measures) Amendment Act 2020 (2020 No 21).

20C Consent may be declined if transaction contrary to national interest

- (1) The Minister may decline consent to a transaction of national interest if the Minister considers that the transaction is contrary to New Zealand's national interest.
- (2) The person making a decision under section 24 in relation to a particular application cannot exercise the Minister's power under subsection (1) in relation to that application.
- (3) If the Minister does not decline consent to a transaction of national interest, the Minister may impose any conditions on any consent that may be granted under this Act, and section 25A applies with necessary modifications.

20D Who are critical direct suppliers

- (1) The Minister may identify a person as a critical direct supplier if the Minister is satisfied that—
 - (a) the person is a direct supplier of goods or services to an intelligence or security agency; and
 - (b) the goods or services are integral to the functioning of the agency as an intelligence or security agency; and

- (c) the supply of those goods or services cannot readily be replaced.
- (2) The Minister must—
 - (a) notify a person that they are a critical direct supplier; and
 - (b) either—
 - (i) publish that person's name in a list of critical direct suppliers on an Internet site maintained by or for the regulator; or
 - (ii) if subsection (3) applies, notify the person that they are an unpublished CDS.
- (3) The Minister may defer or dispense with publication if the Minister is satisfied on reasonable grounds that good reason for withholding the publication would exist under the Official Information Act 1982.
- (4) The Minister must—
 - (a) notify a person if the person ceases to be a critical direct supplier; and
 - (b) if relevant, remove that person's name from the list of critical direct suppliers on the Internet site maintained by or for the regulator.

Notice to prospective investors and new investors of status as critical direct supplier

- (2) An unpublished CDS must notify a person of the unpublished CDS's status as a critical direct supplier as soon as is reasonably practicable after the earlier of—

- (7) In this section, an investor is a person who, under a call-in transaction or a transaction of national interest, acquires sensitive assets that relate to a critical direct supplier.

- (3) The time specified in the notice for the purposes of subsection (2)(a) must not be less than 90 days after the date on which the notice is given (but this does not limit the power to specify any time under subsection (2)(b)).
- (4) The notice must set out the regulator's belief and the reasonable grounds for that belief.
- (5) The regulator may withdraw a notice at any time before A does both of the following:

- (a) disposes of the property within the time and in the manner specified in the notice under subsection (2)(a); and
 - (b) complies with subsection (2)(b) within the time and in the manner specified in the notice under that paragraph.

- (4) See also Part 4 of the Crimes Act 1961, which relates to parties to the commission of offences.
- (5) The regulator may take any other enforcement action it thinks fit in relation to the contravention, offence, or failure referred to in section 41F(1) if—

- (1) The Minister may recommend any regulations under section 61C, or grant an exemption under section 61D, only if the Minister considers—

- (a) that there are circumstances that mean that it is necessary, appropriate, or desirable to provide an exemption for any of the matters referred to in section 61B(a) to (c); and
 - (b) that the extent of the exemption is not broader than is reasonably necessary to address those circumstances.
- (2) In so considering, the Minister—
 - (a) must have regard to the purpose of this Act; and
 - (b) may have regard to all or any of the following:
 - (i) the extent to which effective ownership or control is changed by the overseas investment or remains with persons who are not overseas persons:
 - (ii) the extent to which a sensitive asset is already held in overseas ownership or control:
 - (iii) the extent to which the acquisition is the result of the operation of other legislation or an event outside the control of the overseas person:

 - (b) for the person who relies on the exemption to be treated as a consent holder to the extent set out in the regulations:
 - (c) for consent holders to cease to be subject to the conditions of their consents to the extent set out in the regulations.

- (4) An exemption may at any time be amended or revoked in the same way as it may be made (for example, section 61E applies with all necessary modifications).
- (5) The reasons of the Minister for recommending the regulations or granting an exemption (including why the exemption is necessary, appropriate, or desirable) must be published together with the regulations or exemption.
- (6) However, the publication of an exemption under section 61D, or of the reasons for granting any exemption, may be deferred or dispensed with (in whole or in part) if the Minister is satisfied on reasonable grounds that good reason for withholding the exemption or the reasons (as the case may be) would exist under the Official Information Act 1982.

Schedule 1AA

Transitional, savings, and related provisions

s 8B

Schedule 1AA: inserted, on 22 October 2018, by section 49 of the Overseas Investment Amendment Act 2018 (2018 No 25).

Part 1

Provisions relating to Overseas Investment Amendment Act 2018

1 Existing transactions and applications not affected

- (1) The amendments made by the Overseas Investment Amendment Act 2018 apply only to transactions entered into on or after commencement.
- (2) In particular, this Act and the regulations, as in force immediately before commencement, continue to apply to the following as if the Overseas Investment Amendment Act 2018 had not been enacted:
 - (a) any transaction entered into before commencement;
 - (b) any application for consent that is made before commencement and that relates to a transaction entered into before commencement;
 - (c) any application for consent that is made after commencement and that relates to a transaction entered into before commencement.
- (3) Subclause (2) does not limit subclause (1).
- (4) In this clause, entering into a contract or an arrangement before commencement is a transaction that must be treated as being entered into before commencement even if, immediately before commencement, the transaction is subject to a condition precedent.
- (5) If a sale or transfer of property or securities, or the issue, allotment, buyback, or cancellation of securities, occurs without a contract or an arrangement being entered into or an understanding being arrived at, the transaction must be treated as being entered into for the purpose of subclauses (1) and (2) when the property or securities are sold or transferred or the securities are issued, allotted, bought back, or cancelled (as the case may be).
- (6) In this clause, clause 2, and clause 3, commencement means the commencement of this clause.

Example

A is an overseas person.

Before commencement, A enters into a sale and purchase agreement to buy a house that is on residential (but not otherwise sensitive) land. At that time, the land is not sensitive under this Act. The agreement is subject to a finance condition.

After commencement, the finance condition is satisfied and the agreement becomes unconditional. Settlement occurs 1 month later.

The transaction does not require consent under this Act because the transaction was entered into before commencement (that is, at a time when the residential land was not sensitive land and its purchase did not require consent).

2 Existing transactions: benefit to New Zealand test relating to sensitive land that will be used for forestry activities

- (1) This clause applies to a transaction entered into before commencement if consent is not given for the transaction before commencement.
- (2) Despite clause 1,—
 - (a) an application for consent for the transaction may be considered under the benefit to New Zealand test applying section 16A(3) or in accordance with section 16A(4), as inserted by the Overseas Investment Amendment Act 2018; and

Schedule 1A

Total term of interest in land

s 12

Schedule 1A: inserted, on 5 July 2021, by section 33 of the Overseas Investment Amendment Act 2021 (2021 No 17).

1 Calculation of total term of interest in land

- (1) The total term of an interest in land is the duration of—
- (a) either—
 - (i) the term of the interest acquired; or
 - (ii) in the case of an interest that is part-way through its current term, the remainder of any current term of the interest as at the time the overseas investment transaction is entered into; and
 - (b) any rights of renewal of that interest (whether of the grantor or grantee); and
 - (c) any previous interest that relates to the same or substantially the same land; and
 - (d) if a previous interest was separated in time by a periodic interest, that periodic interest.

Example

An overseas person was a tenant of a lease of sensitive land for a term of 9 years with no rights of renewal. At the end of that lease, the parties enter into a 2-year extension.

The total term of the interest is 11 years: 2 years' extension plus 9 years under the previous lease. The acquisition of the extension is an overseas investment in sensitive land, and consent is required.

- (2) A previous interest, in relation to an interest in land, is an estate (other than a freehold estate) or interest in land that—
- (a) was held by—
 - (i) the overseas person or an associate of the overseas person; or
 - (ii) a person in which the overseas person or their associate (either alone or together with its associates) had a more than 25% ownership or control interest; and
 - (b) was consecutive in time to the relevant interest or to another previous interest of the relevant interest.

- (3) The duration of a previous interest before the overseas person or their associate had a more than 25% ownership or control interest in the person who held that previous interest must be disregarded from the calculation of the total term.

Example

A tenant has a lease of land for a term of 10 years. In year 6 of the lease, an overseas person increases their ownership interest in the tenant from 15% interest to 30%. At the end of the lease, the tenant enters into a new lease of the same land for a 5-year term.

The total term of the interest is 9 years: 5 years in the new lease plus 4 years of the previous lease from the point that the overseas person invested in the tenant. The acquisition of the new lease is not an overseas investment in sensitive land.

- (4) In this clause,—

consecutive includes separated by—

- (a) any periodic interest; or
- (b) a period of less than 4 months

periodic interest means any interest in land that—

- (a) is terminable at will, whether by the grantor or the grantee; and
- (b) offers no certainty of term of 4 months or more (including rights of renewal, whether of the grantor or the grantee).

Example

An overseas person was a tenant under a lease of sensitive land for 5 years. The tenant held over after the lease expired. No consent is required for that periodic lease (see clause 2 of Schedule 3).

After a year of holding over, the tenant enters into a new lease with the landlord for another 5 years.

The new lease is the acquisition of an interest in land. The total term of the interest is 11 years: 5 years in the new lease, 1 year of holding over, and 5 years under the previous lease. The acquisition of the new lease is an overseas investment in sensitive land, and consent is required.

Schedule 1A clause 1: inserted, on 5 July 2021, by section 33 of the Overseas Investment Amendment Act 2021 (2021 No 17).

Part 2

Commitment to reside in New Zealand test

Availability of test

3 For what land is test in this Part available

- (1) The commitment to reside in New Zealand test is only available for residential land.
- (2) It does not matter if the residential land is also sensitive for some other reason under Part 1 of Schedule 1.

4 Who are qualifying individuals and key individuals

- (1) This clause defines certain terms for the purposes of an overseas investment in sensitive land that is considered under the commitment to reside in New Zealand test.
- (2) A person is a qualifying individual if the person—
 - (a) is a New Zealand citizen; or
 - (b) is ordinarily resident in New Zealand; or

- (c) is an overseas person who holds a residence class visa granted under the Immigration Act 2009; or
 - (d) is an overseas person of a type that is specified in regulations made under section 61(1)(j).
- (3) The key individuals for the overseas investment are—
 - (a) the relevant overseas person (if an individual); or
 - (b) if the relevant overseas person is not an individual, every individual with control of the relevant overseas person (unless the individual is exempt under clause 9).
- (4) However, if—
 - (a) 2 individuals (A and B) who would be key individuals under subclause (3) are the spouse or partner of each other; and
 - (b) either—
 - (i) the relevant interest in the residential land will be acquired as relationship property of A and B and regulations exempt B from the requirement for consent under section 10(1)(a); or
 - (ii) the interest in the residential land will be acquired by a company that is incorporated in New Zealand and in which all of the securities are wholly owned as relationship property by A and B, on the basis that A is a key individual,— then B is not a key individual for the overseas investment.

- (5) B (but not A) can also be disregarded for the overseas investment when determining whether the investor test is met if—
 - (a) the application for consent is under the commitment to reside in New Zealand test only; and
 - (b) the investor test applies (because the relevant land is or includes residential land and land that is sensitive under Part 1 of Schedule 1 for some other reason); and
 - (c) the relevant Ministers are satisfied that A is an individual with control of the relevant overseas person (for example, if the relevant overseas person is a company).

Test and conditions

5 How commitment to reside in New Zealand test is met

- (1) The commitment to reside in New Zealand test is met if all of the following are met:
 - (a) the relevant Ministers are satisfied that—
 - (i) every key individual is a qualifying individual; and

- (ii) the purpose of acquiring the relevant interest in the residential land is the acquisition of 1 dwelling (whether that dwelling is constructed on, or is being or will be constructed on, the residential land) for all of the key individuals to occupy as their main home or residence; and
- (b) every key individual who is an overseas person (an OP) (if any) provides a statutory declaration that the OP intends,—
 - (i) at least until the declaration end date, to be present in New Zealand for at least 183 days in every 12-month period beginning on the date of consent or its anniversary in any year; and
 - (ii) (if not already tax resident in New Zealand) to become tax resident in New Zealand; and
 - (iii) to remain tax resident in New Zealand at least until the declaration end date.
- (2) See also clause 6 (which sets out certain conditions to be imposed on certain consents that rely on meeting this test, including a requirement for the consent holder to dispose of all relevant interests in the residential land in certain circumstances).
- (3) In this clause,—

declaration end date, in relation to an OP, means the earlier of—

 - (a) the date that the OP becomes a New Zealand citizen or ordinarily resident in New Zealand; or
 - (b) the date that the relevant overseas person ceases to have a relevant interest in the residential land dwelling means a residential dwelling or a dwelling in a long-term accommodation facility tax resident in New Zealand means a person who is a New Zealand resident under section YD 1 of the Income Tax Act 2007.

6 Conditions for consent if commitment to reside in New Zealand test is met

- (1) This clause applies if consent is to be granted for an overseas investment on the basis of the commitment to reside in New Zealand test and 1 or more key individuals are overseas persons.
- (2) Conditions must be imposed on the consent for the purpose of requiring the matters in the first column of the following table.

- (3) Conditions so imposed cease to have effect as set out in the second column of the following table.

If 1 or more key individuals are overseas persons, conditions that require the following matters must be imposed on the consent

... to have effect until

- | | | |
|---|---|--|
| 1 | All key individuals must occupy the dwelling as their main home or residence (the occupation requirement) | Every key individual who was an overseas person has become a New Zealand citizen or ordinarily resident in New Zealand |
| 2 | The consent holder must dispose of all relevant interests that the consent holder has in the residential land within 12 months of the date that a trigger event occurs (unless the trigger event is resolved within those 12 months) (the disposal requirement) | The trigger event regime ceases for the overseas investment (see clause 7) |

- (4) See also sections 25A and 25B (in relation to the imposition of conditions generally).

Trigger events

7 What are trigger events and how they are resolved

- (1) Trigger events only occur for an overseas investment in relation to key individuals who are overseas persons (each, an OP) at the date of consent.
- (2) In the following table,—
- (a) the first column defines each trigger event in relation to an OP; and
- (b) the second column alongside sets out how the trigger event is resolved.

- | Trigger event | How trigger event is resolved |
|---|--|
| 1 On an anniversary date, OP has been absent from New Zealand for more than 183 days in total in the immediately preceding 12 months without a waiver | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • OP is present in New Zealand for at least 183 days in total in the 12-month period beginning on the anniversary date; or • A waiver is applied for and granted (see clause 8); or • A prescribed resolution applies; or • The trigger event regime ceases for OP (see subclause (3)) |

| 3 OP ceases to be a person of a type that is specified in | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • OP becomes a person of a type that is specified in regulations made under section 61(1)(j); or |

61(1)(j)How trigger event is resolved

- OP becomes the holder of a residence class visa granted under the Immigration Act 2009; or
- A prescribed resolution applies; or
- The trigger event regime ceases for OP (see subclause (3))

When does trigger event regime cease for OP

- (3) No further trigger events can occur for an OP—
- (a) who becomes a New Zealand citizen or ordinarily resident in New Zealand; or
 - (b) whose spouse or partner becomes a New Zealand citizen or ordinarily resident in New Zealand, but only if clause 4(4)(b) applies.
- (4) Subclause (3) applies regardless of whether the OP (or the OP's spouse or partner, as relevant) again becomes an overseas person.

When does trigger event regime cease for overseas investment

- (5) The trigger event regime ceases for the overseas investment when no further trigger events can occur in relation to any key individuals.

Interpretation

- (6) For the purposes of this clause, a person who is present in New Zealand for part of a day is treated as present in New Zealand for a whole day.
- (7) In this clause,—

anniversary date means the anniversary of the date of consent in any year prescribed means prescribed by regulations made under section 61(1)(ja)(ii).

8 Waiver relating to trigger event

- (1) An application may be made, in respect of a person (an OP) in relation to whom a trigger event under item 1 of the table in clause 7(2) may or will occur, or has occurred, for a waiver from the requirement for the consent holder to dispose of all relevant interests in the residential land as a consequence of the trigger event occurring.
- (2) The relevant Ministers must grant the waiver if the relevant Ministers consider, in accordance with regulations made under section 61(1)(ja)(i), that the OP remains committed to residing in New Zealand.
- (3) A waiver—
- (a) may be general or may specify the 1 or more instances of the trigger event to which it applies;
 - (b) may be open-ended or granted for a period;
 - (c) may be made subject to any conditions.

- (4) A waiver may at any time be amended or revoked in the same way as it may be made.

Exemption

9 Exemption from definition of key individual

If, for an overseas investment in sensitive land being considered under the commitment to reside in New Zealand test, the relevant overseas person is not an individual, the relevant Ministers may determine that 1 or more of the individuals with control of the relevant overseas person is not a key individual for the overseas investment—

- (a) because of the circumstances relating to the particular relevant overseas person and the purpose of the overseas investment; and
- (b) only if the relevant Ministers are satisfied of both of the following:
 - (i) that the individual will not have any beneficial interest in, or beneficial entitlement to, the relevant interest in the residential land; and
 - (ii) if the relevant overseas person is a trust, that the individual is not a person who may (directly or indirectly) benefit under the trust at the discretion of the trustees and is not likely to become such a person.

Part 3

Schedule 2 Part 3 heading: amended, on 25 February 2025, by section 6(2) of the Overseas Investment (Build-to-rent and Similar Rental Developments) Amendment Act 2025 (2025 No 4).

Availability of tests

10 For what land are tests in this Part available

The 4 tests in this Part are only available if the relevant land is residential (but not otherwise sensitive) land.

Schedule 2 clause 10: amended, on 25 February 2025, by section 6(3) of the Overseas Investment (Build-to-rent and Similar Rental Developments) Amendment Act 2025 (2025 No 4).

Increased housing test

11 How increased housing test is met

- (1) The increased housing test is met if the relevant Ministers are satisfied that—
- (a) 1 or more of the following outcomes (the increased housing outcomes) will, or are likely to, occur on the residential land:

- (i) an increase in the number of residential dwellings constructed on the residential land (including an increase from 0);
 - (ii) construction of a long-term accommodation facility on the residential land, or an increase in the number of dwellings in a long-term accommodation facility that is on the residential land;
 - (iii) development works on the land to support the doing of things described in either or both of subparagraphs (i) and (ii); and
- (b) the following outcomes (as defined in clause 17) will, or are likely to, occur:
 - (i) the on-sale outcome (unless exempt from this outcome under subclause (2)); and
 - (ii) the non-occupation outcome.
- (2) Subclause (1)(b)(i) does not apply,—
 - (a) if the increased housing outcome is as described in subclause (1)(a)(ii) and the relevant Ministers are satisfied that the long-term accommodation facility will, or is likely to, operate from the residential land within a specified period, to the extent that the relevant Ministers are satisfied that the land will, or is likely to, be used for those operations; or
 - (b) if an exemption under clause 20 (exemption for large developments with shared equity, rent-to-buy, and rental arrangements) applies.
- (3) The increased housing outcomes are measured by comparing the expected result of the overseas investment against the state of the residential land before the transaction takes effect.
- (4) In this clause (and in clause 19), development works—
 - (a) includes the construction, alteration, demolition, or removal of a building or infrastructure; and
 - (b) includes siteworks (including earthworks) that are preparatory to, or associated with, the matters set out in paragraph (a); but
 - (c) does not include subdivision of land without other development works.
- (5) See also clause 18 (which sets out certain conditions to be imposed on consents that rely on meeting this test).

Large rental development test

Heading: inserted, on 25 February 2025, by section 6(4) of the Overseas Investment (Build-to-rent and Similar Rental Developments) Amendment Act 2025 (2025 No 4).

11A How large rental development test is met

- (1) The large rental development test is met if the relevant Ministers are satisfied that—

- (a) the residential land is a single site, or adjacent sites separated by infrastructure (such as roads), with 1 or more buildings that, taken together, consist of 20 or more dwellings suitable for use as, or conversion to, residential dwellings; and
 - (b) at least 20 of the residential dwellings will be, or are likely to be, available for use, within a time frame that is satisfactory to the relevant Ministers, as a residential dwelling occupied under a residential tenancy to which the Residential Tenancies Act 1986 applies or would apply (the large rental development outcome); and
 - (c) the non-occupation outcome (as defined in clause 17) will, or is likely to, occur.
- (2) See also clause 18 (which sets out certain conditions to be imposed on consents that rely on meeting this test).

Schedule 2 clause 11A: inserted, on 25 February 2025, by section 6(4) of the Overseas Investment (Build-to-rent and Similar Rental Developments) Amendment Act 2025 (2025 No 4).

Non-residential use test and incidental residential use test

12 What is the relevant business

- (1) This clause applies if an overseas investment is being considered under the non-residential use test or the incidental residential use test.
- (2) The relevant Ministers may determine which 1 or more of the following is the relevant business:
 - (a) a business of the relevant overseas person (A):
 - (b) a business of a person (B) if A owns or controls the relevant interest in the residential land primarily for B to use the residential land in that business:
 - (c) a business of a person (C) if C owns or controls the relevant interest in the residential land and A has rights or interests in securities of C.
- (3) However, in making that determination, the relevant Ministers must be satisfied that the business is likely to continue for a reasonable period of time, given the circumstances and nature of the business.

Schedule 2 clause 12(2)(c): inserted, on 5 July 2021, by section 34(1) of the Overseas Investment Amendment Act 2021 (2021 No 17).

13 How non-residential use test is met

- (1) The non-residential use test is met if the relevant Ministers are satisfied that the residential land will be, or is likely to be (or will, or is likely to, continue to be)—
 - (a) used for non-residential purposes in the ordinary course of business for the relevant business; and
 - (b) not used, nor held for future use, for any residential purposes.

- (2) In any case where the relevant Ministers are not satisfied that the matters in subclause (1)(a) and (b) (the non-residential use outcome) will, or are likely to, occur within a short period after the overseas investment is given effect under the transaction, they may determine that the non-residential use test is met if—
- (a) either—
- (i) the relevant Ministers are satisfied that the non-occupation outcome (as defined in clause 17) will, or is likely to, occur; or
- (ii) the incidental residential use test is applied for and met in respect of the residential land; and
- (b) the relevant Ministers are satisfied that, within a specified period, the non-residential use outcome will be, or is likely to be, met.
- (3) Subclause (4) applies if the relevant Ministers determine that the non-residential use test is met only in respect of part of the residential land and no other test is applied for and met in respect of the remaining part of the residential land.
- (4) The relevant Ministers may determine that the non-residential use test is met if they are satisfied that the on-sale outcome (as defined in clause 17) will, or is likely to, occur for the remaining part of the residential land.
- (5) See also clause 18 (which sets out certain conditions to be imposed on consents that rely on meeting this test).

14 How incidental residential use test is met

- (1) The incidental residential use test is met if the relevant Ministers are satisfied that—
- (a) the residential land will be, or is likely to be (or will, or is likely to, continue to be) used for residential purposes but only in support of the relevant business, where the relevant business is not (or is only exceptionally) in the business of using land for residential purposes (the incidental residential use outcome); and
- (b) having regard to that use of the residential land, the relevant interest in the residential land will be, or is likely to be, acquired in the ordinary course of the business of the relevant overseas person.
- (2) In considering whether the incidental residential use test is met, the relevant Ministers may have regard to all or any of the following:
- (a) whether any reasonable alternative exists to the acquisition of the relevant interest in the residential land:
- (b) the proximity of the residential land to the premises or operations of the relevant business:

- (c) whether the use of the residential land for residential purposes is (without limitation) as accommodation for staff engaged in the relevant business;
 - (d) any other factors that seem to the relevant Ministers to be relevant in the circumstances.
- (3) Subclause (4) applies if the relevant Ministers determine that the incidental residential use test is met only in respect of part of the residential land and no other test is applied for and met in respect of the remaining part of the residential land.
- (4) The relevant Ministers may determine that the incidental residential use test is met if they are satisfied that the on-sale outcome (as defined in clause 17) will, or is likely to, occur for the remaining part of the residential land.
- (5) See also clause 18 (which sets out certain conditions to be imposed on consents that rely on meeting this test).

Part 4

How transaction meets more than 1 test in this schedule

15 How transaction meets more than 1 test in this schedule

For the purposes of section 16(1)(b)(i), different tests in this schedule can be met in respect of different parts of the residential land that is, or is included in, the relevant land so long as at least 1 test is met in respect of each part of the residential land.

Example

A is an overseas person who wishes to buy a company. The company owns land that is residential (but not otherwise sensitive) land and has no other direct or indirect interest in land that is sensitive land. The land contains a house that A wants to live in and part of the land is undeveloped land on which A wants to build houses for on-sale.

A applies for consent on the basis of the commitment to reside in New Zealand test and the increased housing test.

Part 5

Conditions attached to outcomes for residential land

Conditions

16 Conditions attached to outcomes for residential land

- (1) This Part sets out conditions to be imposed on consents that are granted for overseas investments in sensitive land on the basis that—
 - (a) 1 or more of the tests in Part 3 are met; or

- (b) the benefit to New Zealand test is met, the relevant land is or includes residential land, and section 16B applies.
- (2) See also—
 - (a) clause 6 (for conditions to be imposed on certain consents that are granted on the basis that the commitment to reside in New Zealand test is met):
 - (b) sections 25A and 25B in relation to the imposition of conditions generally.

17 What are on-sale outcome and non-occupation outcome

- (1) This clause defines the on-sale outcome and the non-occupation outcome for the purposes of various conditions and related tests.
- (2) The on-sale outcome is that, within a specified period, the relevant overseas person disposes of all relevant interests in the residential land.
- (3) The non-occupation outcome is that, for so long as the relevant overseas person has a relevant interest in the residential land, none of the following occupy the land for residential purposes:
 - (a) the relevant overseas person (A):
 - (b) any overseas person (B) who has a more than 25% ownership or control interest in A:
 - (c) any overseas person (C) who occupies the land otherwise than on arm's-length terms (for example, a relative who occupies rent-free), where arm's-length terms means terms that—
 - (i) would be reasonable in the circumstances if the owner of the land (including their property agent) and C (including their associates) were connected or related only by the transaction in question, each acting independently, and each acting in its own best interests; or
 - (ii) are less favourable to C than the terms referred to in subparagraph (i):
 - (d) any overseas person who has a beneficial interest in, or beneficial entitlement to, the relevant interest in the residential land:
 - (e) if A is a trust, a person who may (directly or indirectly) benefit under the trust at the discretion of the trustees.
- (4) However, subclause (3)(c) to (e) do not apply to a person who is entitled to occupy the land under any consent or any exemption in this Act or the regulations (for example, a person who has consent on the basis of the commitment to reside in New Zealand test may be entitled to lease a new dwelling in respect of which the developer is subject to a non-occupation outcome under the increased housing test).

- (5) For the purposes of section 16A(2)(c) and (4)(c), subclause (3)(c) does not apply to the extent that—
- (a) accommodation is being provided for the purpose only of supporting forestry activities (as defined in section 16A(9)) being carried out on the farm land (in the case of section 16A(2)(c)) or the relevant land (in the case of section 16A(4)(c)); and
 - (b) all the buildings being used for that accommodation are located on land on which some or all of those forestry activities are being carried out or on land that adjoins land on which some or all of those forestry activities are being carried out.

Schedule 2 clause 17(3): amended, on 5 July 2021, by section 34(2) of the Overseas Investment Amendment Act 2021 (2021 No 17).

Exemptions from on-sale outcome and condition

20 Exemption for large developments with shared equity, rent-to-buy, and rental arrangements

- (1) The relevant Ministers may decide not to impose a condition requiring the on-sale outcome if—
 - (a) a person (OP) has applied for consent under either of the following:
 - (i) the increased housing test in respect of residential (but not otherwise sensitive) land;
 - (ii) the benefit to New Zealand test in respect of land that is or includes residential land; and
 - (b) the relevant Ministers are satisfied that the relevant land is intended to be used for the construction of 1 or more buildings that, taken together, will consist of 20 or more new residential dwellings (the large development).
- (2) The exemption in subclause (1) applies if the relevant Ministers are satisfied that—
 - (a) all of the new residential dwellings in the large development will be dealt with under 1 or more of the following arrangements that are satisfactory to the relevant Ministers:
 - (i) OP will jointly own the new residential dwelling with an occupier (for example, an arrangement commonly referred to as a shared equity arrangement);
 - (ii) OP will divest ownership of the new residential dwelling to the occupier over a period of time (for example, an arrangement commonly referred to as a rent-to-buy arrangement);

- (1) The relevant Ministers may decide not to impose a condition requiring the on-sale outcome if—
 - (a) a person (OP) has applied for consent under the benefit to New Zealand test in respect of an acquisition of rights or interests in securities referred to in section 12(1)(b); and
 - (b) as a result of that acquisition, OP will have an indirect interest or a minority interest in an overseas person (A) that directly owns or controls an estate or interest in residential land described in section 12(1)(a) (the relevant land).
- (2) The exemption applies if the relevant Ministers are satisfied that, by reason of the circumstances relating to OP and the degree of control that OP will have in A, OP and its associates would not have, or would be unlikely to exercise or control the exercise of, any substantial influence over the relevant land.
- (3) The exemption is subject to the conditions that—

Exemptions in respect of overseas investments in sensitive land

1 Māori freehold land

A transaction does not require consent for the purposes of section 10(1)(a) to the extent that it will result in an overseas investment in sensitive land by a Māori person where the relevant land is Māori freehold land for which the person is a member of the preferred classes of alienees (where those terms have the same meaning as in Te Ture Whenua Maori Act 1993).

Exemptions in respect of overseas investments in sensitive land that is residential land

[Repealed]

Heading: repealed, on 16 June 2020, by section 56(1) of the Overseas Investment (Urgent Measures) Amendment Act 2020 (2020 No 21).

2 Periodic lease

- (1) A transaction does not require consent for the purposes of section 10(1)(a) to the extent that it will result in an overseas investment in sensitive land if the estate or interest in land described in section 12(1)(a) is a periodic lease.
- (2) In this clause, periodic lease means a lease that—
 - (a) is terminable at will, whether by the grantor or the grantee (including a periodic tenancy within the meaning of section 2(1) of the Residential Tenancies Act 1986); and
 - (b) offers no certainty of term of 4 months or more (including rights of renewal, whether of the grantor or the grantee).

Schedule 3 clause 2(1): replaced, on 16 June 2020, by section 56(2) of the Overseas Investment (Urgent Measures) Amendment Act 2020 (2020 No 21).

Schedule 3 clause 2(2)(b): amended, on 5 July 2021, by section 35(1) of the Overseas Investment Amendment Act 2021 (2021 No 17).

Exemptions in respect of overseas investments in sensitive land that is residential (but not otherwise sensitive) land

3 Residential tenancy for less than 5 years

- (1) A transaction does not require consent for the purposes of section 10(1)(a) to the extent that it will result in an overseas investment in sensitive land if—
 - (a) the estate or interest in land described in section 12(1)(a) is a residential tenancy for a term of less than 5 years (including rights of renewal, whether of the grantor or grantee); and
 - (b) the relevant land is residential (but not otherwise sensitive) land.
- (2) In this clause, residential tenancy means a tenancy to which the Residential Tenancies Act 1986 applies (including a periodic tenancy within the meaning of section 2(1) of that Act).

Schedule 3 clause 3(1)(a): amended, on 16 June 2020, by section 56(3) of the Overseas Investment (Urgent Measures) Amendment Act 2020 (2020 No 21).

4 Dwellings in large apartment developments that are purchased off plans

- (1) This clause applies in respect of land that is being used, or intended to be used, for 1 (or more) of the following (a development):
 - (a) in the construction of 1 or more multi-storey buildings as 1 development, where each building consists, or will consist, of at least 20 residential dwellings; or

- (b) to increase the number of residential dwellings in 1 or more multi-storey buildings, where the number of residential dwellings in each building will be increased by 20 or more.

Exemption certificates

- (2) A person involved in the development (the developer) may apply for an exemption certificate if regulations are in force under section 61(1)(jb).
- (3) The relevant Minister or Ministers may grant an exemption certificate if they are satisfied that the development is likely to be completed, having regard to factors such as—
 - (a) whether the development has appropriate resource consent, building consent, and any other relevant authorisations; and
 - (b) the developer's financial strength; and
 - (c) the previous activity of the developer (or its associates or individuals with control) regarding use of residential land; and
 - (d) the previous record of the developer (or its associates or individuals with control) in complying with consent conditions or applying for consent conditions to be varied.
- (4) An exemption certificate may be applied to up to the maximum percentage, as prescribed in the regulations made under section 61(1)(jb), of the residential dwellings in the development.

Exemptions for dwellings to which exemption certificate applies

- (5) A transaction does not require consent for the purposes of section 10(1)(a) to the extent that it will result in an overseas investment in sensitive land in respect of a residential dwelling in the development if—
 - (a) the relevant land is residential (but not otherwise sensitive) land; and
 - (b) an exemption certificate applies to the dwelling under subclause (4); and
 - (c) the person (the purchaser) makes the investment before the construction of the dwelling is complete.

Example

OP1 buys off the plans an apartment to which an exemption certificate applies, using the exemption in subclause (5). So the on-sale outcome does not apply to OP1 (but see subclause (6)(b) for the non-occupation outcome).

OP2 later buys a different apartment to which the exemption certificate does not apply. OP2 must apply for consent (but see section 16(3)(b) for an exemption from the investor test if OP2 applies for consent under the increased housing test.) OP2 must comply with the conditions of that consent as to the on-sale outcome and the non-occupation outcome.

Other provisions

- (6) The relevant Ministers may grant an exemption certificate subject to the conditions that they think appropriate, and must impose conditions as follows:

- (a) conditions that enable the regulator to identify and monitor the dwellings to which the certificate is applied; and
 - (b) conditions that impose the non-occupation outcome on purchasers who rely on the exemption certificate under subclause (5); and
 - (c) conditions that enable the non-occupation outcome to be monitored by the regulator.
- (7) Those conditions may be conditions—
- (a) that apply to either the developer (as a condition of the exemption certificate) or the purchaser (as a condition of the exemption in subclause (5)), or both; and
 - (b) that require both the developer and the purchaser to provide the regulator with the name, contact details, and other details of dwellings to which the certificate is applied and the purchasers of those dwellings.

5 Certain units acquired and leased back
